

PUBLIC LECTURE

JOHN PERKINS

Hoodwinked! What Wrecked our Economy? How to Fix It

We invite you to a public lecture given by John Perkins, New York Times Bestselling Author of Confessions of an Economic Hitman, past Chief Economist advising the World Bank, the UN and many developing countries.

John Perkins will draw on experiences described in his blockbuster books; the creation of history's first truly global empire and its implications on our society today.

A Q&A session as well as book signing and book sale will follow his address.

Do not miss the opportunity to be engaged by the unconventional life experiences of this best-selling author, past economic hitman and one of the most notorious public speakers.
